

HONOR CODE

The word "I" refers to the Minor Child who will be participating in Farm Fun activities described and referred to in the Farm Fun Agreement, Release and Waiver of All Claims. I understand that to participate in Farm Fun, I must follow the following rules and abide by this Honor Code:

I want to participate in Farm Fun activities.

I understand that animals can be unpredictable, and that this Honor Code is intended to keep all animals and creatures free from injury and safe from harm.

I understand that his Honor Code is intended to enable all participants in Farm Fun to be safe, free from harm, and free from injury.

I will not hurt, injure, or harm any animal or creature.

I will not yell, scream, or otherwise attempt to frighten any animal, creature, or participant in the Farm Fun program.

I will not bully, hit, strike, or otherwise harm any participant in the Farm Fun program.

I will not climb fences or trees.

I will take turns and patiently wait my turn to ride horses, groom horses, play with baby animals, feed baby animals, and participate in other Farm Fun activities.

I will obey all instructions provided by employees of Fun on the Farm, LLC.

I will be friendly and try to help everyone have fun!

We have discussed the Honor Code and each of the items listed above. The Participant has discussed any questions about the Honor Code with both of his or her parents. We agree that the Participant will abide by the Honor Code.
